CEDARVILLE COLLEGE BULLETIN

APR.-MAY 1967

LIBRARY MOVING DAY, MAY 19

All friends of Cedarville College are invited to participate in the Library Moving Day, May 19, on campus in Cedarville. Trustees, pastors, church members, townspeople, students, professors—anyone interested in the college—will transfer books from the old library off campus to the recently completed library in a central location.

Moving Day ceremonies will begin at 10:00 that morning with a brief meeting in the Gymnasium for instructions on how the transfer should be conducted. Following this, the entire group will march down to the old building to pick up a load of books.

This first load will be ceremonial, and the real purpose of the day, but individuals can devote as much time as they wish that morning and afternoon to the endeavor.

Refreshments will be served in the audio-visual room of the new library after the ceremony.

It is hoped this can be a triumphant time of fellowship to mark the achievement of a long-dreamed-of-improvement for Cedarville College.

RECORD ENROLLMENT ANTICIPATED IN SUMMER SESSION

Summer session classes will begin Monday, June 5 and end July 14. Interested persons should write the Registrar for the summer session brochure.

Over twenty different courses will be offered including five courses in Bible.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT DAYS MAY 12-13

May 12 and 13 are being designated as Prospective Student Days in order that high school seniors and other interested young people can catch a glimpse of life at Cedarville College.

Visitors will be able to sit in on regular classes Friday, May 12, and observe professors and students in fields of their interest.

On Saturday, May 13, various sessions will be conducted for prospective students at which they can ask questions and gain information about Cedarville College and college life.

The spring play will be performed by the dramatics department that weekend, and visitors are welcome to attend. Admission is $1.00 for students and $1.25 for adults.

Meals will cost $2.00 a day. Individual meals may be purchased if one is not staying the whole time at the following rates: breakfast, $.40; lunch, $.60; and dinner, $1.00.

The first 170 students who notify the college that they will be coming will be housed in the recently completed dormitory which has not been occupied yet. They will have to bring their own bedding, but will not sleep in sleeping bags or on cots in the gymnasium like those who register late.

Address notifications of planned attendance to Mr. Lee C. Turner, Director of Development, Cedarville College, Cedarville, Ohio 45314.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dr. James T. Jeremiah. President

Cedarville College is on the march! Our new library building has been completed and on May 19 we are planning a special "Moving Day." We encourage all of our friends to meet with us at 10 o'clock on that Friday morning and join what we hope to be a long parade from the present library to the new building. Each one in the march will be asked to carry on armful of books to the shelves of the new library. This special invitation is given to trustees, faculty, students, residents of Cedarville, those who have contributed to the college in any way, and to the pastors and members of our supporting churches, of course. We urge you to be present for this special occasion and help us make this "Moving Day" one of the most interesting in our college history.

You will be pleased when you see the new dormitory which will provide better living conditions for many of our students. It is large enough to house over two hundred students with two in a room, and not more than eight in any unit within the building.

We have so often desired to invite prospective students to the college and let them enjoy living in one of our dormitories. During the past few years our facilities have been so crowded that this has been impossible. This may be true again next fall. However, since the new dormitory is not now occupied, we are planning a Prospective Students Day and plan to house them in this new dormitory unit. This special consideration must be limited to the first one hundred seventy applications we receive for this special weekend of activity. Please be sure to read the other announcements in the Bulletin pertaining to this special event.

Within a few weeks we hope to have the new catalog ready for distribution. Its publication is late this year because the college has changed from the semester to the quarter system. Since classes will not begin until October 2, many of our students will have another month for employment and thus be helped financially. Many young people are making applications for admission for fall, and in order to provide adequate housing and other facilities for them, we encourage any who are planning to come but have not made application, to do so immediately.

As we daily observe both the spiritual and material blessings of our God upon this college, we are often reminded of such promises as "Nevertheless, my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail" (Psalm 89:33). About on every hand in the world today we observe distress where many are seeking a solution to their problems but seemingly never find a satisfactory answer. The Christian on the contrary, by faith in an unchanging and unchangeable God, faces the future with confidence.

It has been said before in this Bulletin in many ways, but it bears repetition, that this Christian college has been brought into existence for the particular purpose of providing a Christian education for the young people who come from our churches. We have therefore every reason to believe that announcements of progress in this Bulletin brought about by His hand will be repeated in various ways in the years which lie ahead. For this reason we would encourage you, our friends, to continue your earnest prayer in our behalf and sacrificial giving as you are enabled to do so. Thank you for all that you are doing now and plan to do in the future.

GRADUATION

Graduation activities will be held May 26 and 27. The Baccalaureate service will be Friday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Center. Commencement will be the next morning at 10:00.

Baccalaureate speaker will be Dr. Ernest Pickering, pastor of the Bible Baptist Church of Kokomo, Indiana.

Dr. Pickering has served as Dean and Professor of Systematic Theology at Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Minneapolis, Minnesota, as a member of the Board of Trustees of Pillsbury College, and as editor-in-chief of Voice magazine.

A graduate of Bob Jones University, Dr. Pickering has earned Th.M. and Th.D. degrees from Dallas Theological Seminary.

Dr. Herman A. Hoyt, president of Grace Theological Seminary and Grace College, will present the commencement address entitled, "The Only Absolute and Its Consequent Implications."

Dr. Hoyt has more than thirty years of experience as an educator and twenty-five years as an administrator. He is the author of several theological books.

Dr. Hoyt holds the A.B. from Ashland College, the B.Th. from Ashland Theological Seminary, the B.D., Th.M., and Th.D. from Grace Theological Seminary, and an honorary LL.D. from Bryan College.

SWORDBEARERS

A Baptist church may soon be formed in the nearby town of London, Ohio, largely through the efforts of the Swordbearers, a Cedarville College evangelistic group.

The Swordbearers are implementing a three-phase program in London. First, they conducted a series of seven Saturday evening street meetings, during which thirteen decisions for Christ were recorded. Second, Bible classes are now being held for those who have accepted Christ. Finally, an autonomous, Bible-believing church will be formed.

Rev. Earl D. Umbaugh, State missionary for the Ohio Association of Regular Baptist Churches, started the Bible classes on Thursday, March 2, under the sponsorship of Grace Baptist Church in Cedarville, Ohio.

FACULTY FACTS

Dr. Robert Gromacki, Chairman of the Division of Biblical Education at Cedarville College, will have a book published in late April entitled The Modern Tongues Movement.

The Evangelical Book Club has selected Dr. Gromacki's book as one of its bonus or dividend books for its members. This will consume a minimum of four thousand volumes from the first printing.

Major chapters include "A Historical Survey of Speaking in Tongues," "The Nature of the Modern Tongues Movement," "The Language of Speaking in Tongues," "Tongues in the Gospel of Mark," "Tongues in the Book of Acts," "Tongues in the Epistle of First Corinthians." A subject index and an extensive bibliography are included in the publication.

Being printed by the Presbyterian and Reformed Publishing Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the 170-page clothbound book will retail for $4.50.

Miss Joy Mackey, Assistant Professor of Christian Education, will be one of the main participants in the Christian Camp and Conference International Convention at Asilomar Conference Grounds near Monterey, California, April 17-20.

Her book, Creative Counseling For Christian Camps, is featured by the conference as "the most comprehensive manual in print for Christian camp counselors."

Miss Mackey also conducted a Sunday School workshop March 18 at Immanuel Baptist Church in Columbus, Ohio, and is presently administering twelve weeks of training to Sunday School teachers at Marantha Baptist Church from March to May.

PI SIGMA NU AWARDED FOR CONSERVATION

Mr. Randy Ross, President of Pi Sigma Nu, and Mr. Brad Moore, faculty advisor to the group, were awarded a conservation plaque by the Downtown Dayton Kiwanis. The recognition was for the efforts of Pi Sigma Nu to beautify Clifton Gorge.

Sixteen men of Pi Sigma Nu spent Saturday morning of November 12, 1966, clearing picnic litter and other rubbish from the Little Miami River beauty spot near Clifton, Ohio.

This action was in response to editorial comment in Dayton news media concerning the lack of respect visitors to the gorge were showing toward property of the Dayton Museum of Natural History which had been left open to tourists at no charge.

Mr. E. G. Koestner, director of the Dayton Museum of Natural History, gave permission to the Cedarville College group to undertake the project. He also is responsible for initiating the Kiwanian's action to give the plaque to Pi Sigma Nu in appreciation for its public service.

At the time of the cleanup, Dayton, Xenia, and Springfield newspapers and WHIO television covered the event.

YOUR LAST TESTIMONY

The last testimony you will ever give will take place after you have left this life. It will be recorded publicly for all to see; you will not be able to change it.

What is this last testimony? It is the disposition of all the earthly possessions that the Lord has entrusted to your care. Your final act of stewardship will be an evidence of your faithfulness as a Christian.

If you have no will, your Christian testimony will be weakened. An administrator will be appointed by the court and the distribution of your estate will be taken out of the hands of your loved ones. In many cases much of the estate will go to the State, with your loved ones receiving the remainder. Your church, missions, Christian higher education, and worthy Christian organizations you have supported during your lifetime will be forgotten completely.

However by remembering the Lord's work in your will, you can make your last will and testament into a testimony. The distribution of your God-given possessions can be a final witness for the Savior who gave so much for so many. You will have the assurance that your desires will be carried out and your loved ones remembered.

It is a simple matter to have a will prepared, and it is not expensive. The college will be happy to send you a copy of a brochure entitled "Making Your Will" if you will mail us the coupon below. This helpful literature will tell you what you should know before you see your lawyer.

DEVELOPMENT NEWS

Response to our new interest rates on bonds has been very satisfying. Friends of the college have invested an additional $120,000 in bonds since the new rates were announced.

Some of this money will be used to build an addition to our present cafeteria, doubling the size to a seating capacity of 542. Income from our food service will be used to repay the bond money used. The architect has designed the new addition so that the entire cafeteria can be converted to academic classrooms in the future when we are able to build a student-center cafeteria building.

Remodeling in the Student-Center gymnasium will also convert two large classrooms into three new ones that will seat 125 each. The present overflow dining room will be transformed into three student offices and a coat room.

Last year a remodeling project was started on Bethel Hall, a dormitory for boys. Completion of this project should be realized this summer which includes paneling walls, erecting new ceilings and lighting, laying new tile in the rooms, and laying carpet in the hallways.

Cedar Hall will have a new lounge added to the front of the building and a fire escape in the rear. The Cedar Park dormitories will be repainted inside.

Friends of the college having money to invest in bonds are encouraged to mail the coupon found on this page.

Construction work is completed on our new 220-bed dormitory with the exception of landscaping. New furniture for the dormitory is being assembled and placed in the dormitory in preparation for occupancy next fall.

LIBRARY

Our new library will be ready for use before the end of this semester. This was made possible by many small, sacrificial gifts and a large number of $1,000 gifts. The $1,000 gifts were received in response to a challenge for friends of the college and churches to give a $1,000 each to the library. Their names will be inscribed on an honor roll plaque that will be erected inside the new library.

Gifts totaling $229,556 have been received toward the $400,000 needed for the library. The college has borrowed money to finish the library, however, $170,434 must be received in gifts during the next five years to repay these loans.

We are trusting the Lord to raise up a host of churches and individuals who will be able to give a $1,000 gift to the library. There is still time to include the names of donors giving a $1,000 on the honor roll plaque.

TEACHER PLACEMENT

Forty-five seniors in the Elementary Education Division are using the newly organized Placement Bureau, planned and operated by the Registrar's Office. The placement of graduates involves the preparation of a credential file and scheduling of interviews with prospective employers. The credential file includes a summary of personal and academic information needed by the employer. The file includes reference forms prepared by the teacher education supervisor, school personnel with whom the senior worked while doing his student teaching, plus two other references.

The assembled credential file is kept with the senior's academic record and is mechanically duplicated and sent upon request of either the student or the prospective employer. As the Placement Bureau becomes better known, its use will likely be extended to graduates who plan to change positions. After the first placement a charge of $2.00 is made for each credential file prepared.

In February and March five representatives from Christian day schools from five states will have held interviews on our campus with seniors. Also twelve representatives from ten Ohio school districts will have conducted interviews at Cedarville.

WCDR DEDICATION

"We now commit the people and equipment of this radio station to the Lord, and pray that many will be reached for our Lord and Savior through their ministry."

With these words Dr. James T. Jere-miah, President of Cedarville College, dedicated the new facilities of WCDR-FM on March 4, 1967.

The WCDR studios were open to the public throughout the afternoon. Coffee and cookies were served at a reception table and tours through the station were conducted. Other participants in the dedication ceremony held at 2:30 were Mr. Paul Gathany, General Manager; Rev. William Broughton, Pastor of Grace Baptist Church, Cedarville; and Dr. John Reed, Chairman of the Language and Literature Division. Special music was provided by the Victors Trio. Films of the dedication ceremonies were shown in news casts on WHIO Television in Dayton, Ohio.

When the first dedication was held on December 1, 1962, the 10-watt station was operated largely on homemade equipment. It now transmits from its new studios beaming 3,650 watts from a 150-foot tower into the homes of listeners within a 30-50-mile radius.

BASKETBALL NEWS

Al Knott, a 6'5" junior forward on the 1966-67 basketball team, was an honorable mention selection on the United Press International Little All-American team this year.

Knott, who tied with sophomore guard Bruce McDonald for most valuable player award this season, was chosen on the All-NAIA District 22 team and the All-Mid-Ohio Conference team.

He scored 567 points this season for an average of 23.6 points a game. Knott's three year scoring total at Cedarville College is 1602 points.

Cedarville College finished the 1966-67 basketball season with a mediocre record of 12-13. The team won six of the last seven games to make the season climax exciting.

In the Mid-Ohio Conference, Cedarville won four and lost four.

FIRST AAG DRIVE ENDS VICTORIOUSLY

Cedarville College wishes to express sincere appreciation to the Lord and deepest gratitude to the multitude of loyal alumni who participated in the 1st Annual Alumni Giving Drive. In many ways, envisioned first-effort obstacles were overcome.

The top seven classes surpassed the American Alumni Council's national average of 22% participation. Twenty persons contributed more than once with one giving five times and four supporting the college four times.

The class-agent system facilitated the organization of the campaign significantly. Special thanks is given to the class agents who so creatively administered the details of the 1st AAG.

The Class of 1964 after some initial doldrums in the "slough of despond" were able to spurt to eventual victory by the strategic ingenuity of their agent, the upcoming president of the alumni association. The class of '64 is to be congratulated for maintaining its outstanding tradition of allegiance and service. This class will receive special, permanent recognition at the Oct. 13th alumni banquet.

FORMER STUDENT PRACTICING MEDICINE

The following letter excerpts are printed with the permission of Dr. Wayne L. Dickason who attended Cedarville College in 1958-9.

"... Since leaving Cedarville I have attended the Flint Junior College and the University of Michigan in Flint to complete my premedical training. And incidentally, all of my credits transferred to all of the schools including the University of Michigan Medical School except ½ hour credit in Personal Soul Winning... My preparation for medical school was excellent. I graduated in 1965 with my M.D. degree and interned the following year at Blodgett Hospital in Grand Rapids. This year I have started my specialty training in General Surgery here... Now looking back on the several schools and years of education, nostalgia only rises to a significant degree as I think of Cedarville. I sincerely feel that Christian liberal arts schools should be promoted to provide Christian experience... and... educate an individual for a life's profession. In this time of scientific advancement, Christian young people need to be educated beyond high school both in the secular world and spiritually."

FORMER STUDENT ELECTED

Jack Meyer, a former Cedarville student, was elected to the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota November 8, 1966, on a Republican ticket to represent District 32-B in suburban Minneapolis.

He attended Cedarville College in 1956-7, and his wife, Betsy Mabie Meyer, spent two years at Cedarville from 1955-57. The distinctive feature of Jack Meyer's campaign was his house-to-house visitation reaching 99% of the 12,000-13,000 homes in the district. Between one-third and one-half of the homes were visited twice.

Mr. Meyer graduated from Iowa State University, and he has been with the Aero-Division of Honeywell, Inc. ever since as a design engineer. He became involved in politics by serving on a redistricting commission and as a precinct chairman.

Jack and Betsy Meyer are active members in the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Brooklyn Park with their three children; Debbie, 6; Danny, 4; and Ruth, 3.

COMPLETE APPLICATIONS NOW

The members of the Admissions Committee remind high school seniors to complete and mail their college application forms soon. Although no deadline has been set for accepting applications it is well to complete admission procedures at the earliest possible date.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

The Cedarville-Malone basketball game on February 4 was the time of the annual church attendance contest. Cedarville College defeated Malone College 95-81 that evening.

Troy Baptist Temple from Troy, Ohio, had the largest number at the game with 40, and the Calvary Baptist Church of Kalkaska, Michigan, came 460 miles to win the award for coming the greatest distance.
